Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs The college prepares an academic calendar before the beginning of each academic year that contains the date of commencement of the semester, last working day of the semester, date-day orders, dates of internal examination, academic and cultural activities, last dates for submitting marks and the dates for semester end examinations. The calendar is followed strictly by the UG and PG programs including the conduct of Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA). Subsequently every department also prepares its own almanac of activities and each faculty member prepares a lesson plan for each subject. The academic calendar helps faculty members to plan their courses and activities for the semester in advance and to deliver them more effectively. The Timetable Committee for each department headed by the Principal, and constituting of the HODs and deans, draws up an efficient timetable that assigns theory and practical hours to all subjects based on their credits. A lesson plan is drawn for each subject, which is a comprehensive list of topics in the syllabus and the planned number of lecture hours assigned to each topic. The syllabus is framed keeping in mind the equal distribution of total lecture hours across five units, which is then followed faithfully in the lesson plans prepared by the faculty members. Faculty members adhere to the syllabus content for each subject, closely following the number of hours assigned. Faculty members assess the total number of teaching days in the semester and aim at syllabus completion on the basis of the almanac for internal assessments. It is expected that the faculty would have completed at least one unit before the commencement of weekly exam cycles, two and half units before the mid semester exams and all the five units before the pre-final exams are conducted. Question papers for internal assessment are framed accordingly, keeping this syllabus completion goals in mind. Department heads supervise the completion of the syllabus periodically for each faculty member and subject. Various problems in syllabus completion are addressed through the following measures: 1) New faculty members, who are unable to determine the pace of lecture delivery, are asked to observe the classes of senior faculty members to learn about structured lecture delivery. 2) If a faculty member is sick, other faculty members substitute for him/her so that the missed classes could be made up once the faculty reports back to campus. 3) Faculty members are encouraged to take zero-hour classes and extra classes if they lag behind in a subject 4) If a particular subject has a bulky syllabus that is consistently difficult to complete in a semester's time, a syllabus truncation is proposed at the BOS meeting to make it more effective.
3. The period of delay in completion of syllabus (in months).	2
4. The period of delay in conducting exams (in months).	3
