GUEST LECTURES:

1. GUEST LECTURE on Paper F7 – Financial Reporting (NIAF)

Place: Microsoft Teams

Resource Person: Mrs. Vijaya Swaminathan

Purpose: To deal with the subject – Financial Reporting

Report:

Financial Reporting is one of the core subject of ACCA, the Department of B.Com IAF had organized an online guest lecture for the subject of Financial Reporting for the 2nd year students of the department.

The session commenced with a brief description of the subject and how to prepare for the F level papers the session helped students to change their mindset towards the professional papers. It not only deals with case studies but also deals with the practicality.

The first half of the session dealt with the subject, the basic principles and how to attempt the questions from the exam point of view. First session also dealt with questions which were commonly repeated in every professional paper. Constructive response questions were also dealt with, which are an integral part of any ACCA paper.

The second half of the session dealt with the other topics from the subject and it also about how to attempt mock papers.

It had covered all the important topics of the subject which is useful for attempting the professional papers.

Learning Outcome:

This session was useful and informative to the students in understanding the depth of the subject and the concepts. Concepts like Associates, Ratios, Interpretation and Preparation of financial statements were discussed deeply by the faculty.
