12. DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITIES:

1. The third year students of the department of BA Psychology, English and Journalism conducted various social experiments as a part of their social psychology assignment. Social psychology is a branch of psychology that deals with social interactions, including their origins and their effects on the individual. The aim of these experiments was to understand and observe human behaviour in a social setting and evaluate their responses. The students took up various social experiments; some classic experiments were also replicated with minor changes in the variables. This experience was beneficial to the students and it exposed them to the practical nature of psychology.

2. The Department of English , Psychology and Journalism in collaboration with the Department of English organized a one day literature fest titled ‘Touchstone’. The language-literature fest celebrated language, literature, and creativity, where students were seen participating enthusiastically in several cultural events (Drama, Competitions, Story Telling) organized by the department. The chief guest of the event was Dr. Lina Mukhopadhyay ,School of English Education, EFLU, Hyderabad. The guest of Honour Padmini Rangarajan, an educational puppeteer, speaker, presenter and research scholar from Sphoorti Theatre talked about the art of storytelling through a session with her puppets, followed by the student storytellers. The venue was filled with displays of various poems, art pieces and literature memes contributed by the students and faculty of the department.

INDUSTRTY / EDUCATIONAL VISITS:

1. The third year students of the department of BA Psychology, English and Journalism visited ZPHS, a local English medium government school, to conduct a psychology experiment on 30 th January, 2020, accompanied by Jessica Kamthan, their psychology lecturer. The aim of the experiment was to test the intelligence of students studying in class 7 using Bhatia’s Battery of Intelligence for children. The DEL students were divided into pairs of two and administered the test on one child each. The test had five sub tests namely Kohs Block test, Pass Along test, Pattern Drawing test, Immediate Memory and Picture Completion test. This experience was beneficial to both the students and the children. It was a great learning opportunity for the students and to put their theoretical knowledge to practical use.

2. HLF (Hyderabad Literary Festival) is a prestigious, international event organised every year in the month of January. The tenth edition of HLF was scheduled from 24-26 January 2020 and it took place in the premises of Vidyaranya High School. The students along with their lecturers from the Department of English, Psychology and Journalism , Loyola Academy Degree & PG College attended the first day of HLF. The festival had given the students a great exposure in folk and indigenous culture and gave them a greater outlook towards the art practices of various cultures which they studied about in their syllabus.

3. The final year students of the department of Psychology, English and Journalism were accompanied by three faculty members on a departmental trip to Visakhapatnam from 19 Feb, 2020 to 22 Feb, 2020. This educational trip was marked by an academic talk at the Andhra University, visit to the Submarine Museum and visit to the Tribal Museum in Araku.

4. An industrial visit to the printing press of The Hindu Newspaper at Habsiguda, Hyderabad was organized by Mrs. Elsita Dominic for the students of NEL from the Department of Psychology, English and Journalism, of Loyola Academy Degree and PG College on 25th February, 2020.
